Mark Scheme

Modern Hebrew

(Unit 2)

Mark schemes are prepared by the Principal Examiner and considered, together with the relevant questions, by a panel of subject teachers. This mark scheme includes any amendments made at the standardisation meeting attended by all examiners and is the scheme which was used by them in this examination. The standardisation meeting ensures that the mark scheme covers the candidates' responses to questions and that every examiner understands and applies it in the same correct way. As preparation for the standardisation meeting each examiner analyses a number of candidates' scripts: alternative answers not already covered by the mark scheme are discussed at the meeting and legislated for. If, after this meeting, examiners encounter unusual answers which have not been discussed at the meeting they are required to refer these to the Principal Examiner.

It must be stressed that a mark scheme is a working document, in many cases further developed and expanded on the basis of candidates' reactions to a particular paper. Assumptions about future mark schemes on the basis of one year's document should be avoided; whilst the guiding principles of assessment remain constant, details will change, depending on the content of a particular examination paper.

When Knowledge of Grammar (AO3) is assessed in Section 1, the following criteria will be used.

	Knowledge of Grammar (AO3)
0-1	Errors are elementary and so numerous as to impede comprehension.
2	Evidence of gaps in basic grammar. Common structures are not sound and some irregular verbs are suspect.
3	The grammatical structures are known but success in applying them is inconsistent, especially in less common structures.
4	Grammar is sound. Tenses and agreements are reliable and errors occur only in the most difficult areas.
5	The grammatical structures in the specification are used accurately. There are a few errors and these are of a minor nature.

(b) Passage for translation. Total marks 10

For section 1b the following criteria will be used for response to written language (A02)

	Response to Written Language (A02)
0-1	Passage inaccurately translated; overall meaning not conveyed successfully; the sentences are mainly a ‘word for word’ translation, poor spelling.
2-3	Many contain a number of errors, 3-4 substantial ones, but central meaning is conveyed. The sentences reveal some fluency and some awareness of appropriate style.
4-5	May contain a few errors in style, but central meaning is substantially conveyed; good to excellent command of the main areas of awareness of appropriate style.

For section 1b the following criteria will be used for knowledge of grammar (A03)

5	The grammatical structures in the specification are used accurately. There are a few errors and these are of a minor nature.

Section B

Each answer = 40 marks

Total = 80 marks

	Knowledge of Society (A04)
0-1	The answer shows no relevance to the topics/texts/question. A zero score will automatically result in a zero score for the answer as a whole.

5-7	Demonstrates some knowledge and understanding of the topics/texts. Source material and evidence is not always well used.
8-11	Demonstrates sound overall knowledge and understanding of the topics/texts. A good range of sources and guidance is used and the answer is generally relevant to the topics/question.
12-15	Demonstrates a thorough knowledge and understanding of the topics/texts with a wide range of sources and evidence used. The answer is relevant and is wide-ranging in its treatment of the topics/texts/question.
