Mark Scheme

2007 examination - June series

Mark schemes are prepared by the Principal Examiner and considered, together with the relevant questions, by a panel of subject teachers. This mark scheme includes any amendments made at the standardisation meeting attended by all examiners and is the scheme which was used by them in this examination. The standardisation meeting ensures that the mark scheme covers the candidates' responses to questions and that every examiner understands and applies it in the same correct way. As preparation for the standardisation meeting each examiner analyses a number of candidates' scripts: alternative answers not already covered by the mark scheme are discussed at the meeting and legislated for. If, after this meeting, examiners encounter unusual answers which have not been discussed at the meeting they are required to refer these to the Principal Examiner.

It must be stressed that a mark scheme is a working document, in many cases further developed and expanded on the basis of candidates' reactions to a particular paper. Assumptions about future mark schemes on the basis of one year's document should be avoided; whilst the guiding principles of assessment remain constant, details will change, depending on the content of a particular examination paper.

Further copies of this Mark Scheme are available to download from the AQA Website: www.aqa.org.uk

Assessment Objectives One and Two

General Marking Guidance

You should remember that your marking standards should reflect the levels of performance of candidates, mainly 18 years old, writing under examination conditions. The Potential Content given in each case is the most likely correct response to the question set. However, this material is neither exhaustive nor prescriptive and alternative, valid responses should be given credit within the framework of the mark bands.

Positive Marking

You should be positive in your marking, giving credit for what is there rather than being too conscious of what is not. Do not deduct marks for irrelevant or incorrect answers, as candidates penalise themselves in terms of the time they have spent.

Mark Range

You should use the whole mark range available in the mark scheme. Where the candidate's response to a question is such that the mark scheme permits full marks to be awarded, full marks must be given. A perfect answer is not required. Conversely, if the candidate's answer does not deserve credit, then no marks should be given.

Levels of Response for Essay Marking

When reading an essay it is useful to annotate your recognition of the achievement of a response level. This will help the Team Leader follow your thought processes. Levels of response marking relies on recognition of the highest level achieved by the candidate. When you have finished reading the essay, therefore, think top-down, rather than bottom-up. In other words, has the candidate's overall answer met the requirements for the top level? If not, the next level?

Citation of Authority

Candidates will have been urged to use cases and statutes whenever appropriate. Even where no specific reference is made to these in the mark scheme, please remember that their use considerably enhances the quality of an answer.

Assessment Objective Three

Quality of Written Communication

The Code of Practice for GCSE, GCSE in vocational subjects, GCE, VCE and GNVQ requires the assessment of candidates' quality of written communication wherever they are required to write in continuous prose. In this unit, this assessment will take place by marking the candidate's script as a whole, by means of the following criteria:

- Level 3 Moderately complex ideas are expressed clearly and reasonably fluently, through well linked sentences and paragraphs. Arguments are generally relevant and well structured. There may be occasional errors of grammar, punctuation and spelling.
8-10 marks
- Level 2 Straightforward ideas are expressed clearly, if not always fluently. Sentences and paragraphs may not always be well connected. Arguments may sometimes stray from the point or be weakly presented. There may be some errors of grammar, punctuation and spelling, but not such as to detract from communication of meaning.
4-7 marks
- Level 1 Simple ideas are expressed clearly, but arguments may be of doubtful relevance or be obscurely presented. Errors in grammar, punctuation and spelling may be noticeable and intrusive, sufficient to detract from communication of meaning.
1-3 marks
- Level 0 Ideas are expressed poorly and sentences and paragraphs are not connected. There are errors of grammar, punctuation and spelling, such as to severely impair communication of meaning.
0 marks

NOTE

In the mark scheme which follows, there are two standard mark band descriptors:

- The substantive law question mark bands – question parts (a) and (b);
- The evaluative question mark bands – question part (c).

The substantive and evaluative question mark bands are supplied for both a 3 Potential Content and a 2 Potential Content mark scheme, to be applied as appropriate. These mark bands are set out at the beginning and are to be applied to each relevant question part. They are not repeated for each question part.

Except where otherwise indicated, 'sound', 'clear' and 'some' refer to both explanation and application/evaluation. Where, for any element of potential content, one is achieved at the higher level but the other at a lower level, the overall description for that potential content will tend towards the lower level.

Substantive law question mark bands (3 Potential Content)

- 21 - 25 The candidate soundly explains and applies the rules of law in two of (A)-(C) (max 21), and clearly explains and applies the rules of law in the other (max 23 for some explanation and application of rules of law in the other)
or
 the candidate soundly explains and applies the rules of law in one of (A)-(C) and clearly explains and applies the rules of law in the other two (max 21).
- 16 - 20 The candidate soundly explains and applies the rules of law in one of (A)-(C), and clearly explains and applies the rules of law in another
or the candidate clearly explains and applies the rules of law in any two of (A)-(C) (max 18) and presents some explanation and/or application of the other
or the candidate presents some explanation and application of the rules of law in all three of (A)-(C) (max 16).
- 11 - 15 The candidate soundly explains and applies the rules of law in one of (A)-(C)
or the candidate clearly explains and applies the rules of law in one of (A)-(C) and presents some explanation and/or application of the rules of law in any other one of (A)-(C)
or the candidate presents some explanation and application of any two of (A)-(C) (max 13)
or the answer focuses on explanation of rules of law with no significant application (max 15 if sound on two or clear on three, max 13 if sound on one or clear on two, max 11 if clear on one or some on two)
or
 the answer focuses on application to the facts with no significant legal framework (max 12 where the answer displays a sound understanding of the elements of the analysis).
- 6 - 10 The candidate presents some explanation and/or application of any of the rules of law in (A)-(C).
- 1 - 5 The candidate merely introduces fragments of information or unexplained examples from which no coherent explanation and application can emerge
or
 though the candidate attempts to explain and/or apply rules of law, the explanation and/or application are so fundamentally undermined by error and confusion that the answer remains substantially incoherent.
- 0 The candidate presents no information relevant to the question.

Substantive law question mark bands (3 Potential Content) – list of maximum marks

25	two sound, one clear
23	two sound, one some
21	two sound or one sound, two clear
20	one sound, one clear or two clear, one some (explanation and/or application)
18	one sound, one some or two clear

- 11 - 15 The candidate clearly explains and applies the rules of law in one of (A) and (B)
or the candidate presents some explanation and application of both of (A) and (B) (max 13 if one only)
or
 the answer focuses on explanation of rules of law with no significant application (max 15 if sound on two, max 13 if sound on one or clear on two, max 11 if clear on one or some on two)
or
 the answer focuses on application to the facts with no significant legal framework (max 12 where the answer displays a sound understanding of the elements of the analysis).
- 6 - 10 The candidate presents some explanation and/or application of any of the rules of law in (A) and (B).
- 1 - 5 The candidate merely introduces fragments of information or unexplained examples from which no coherent explanation and application can emerge
or
 though the candidate attempts to explain and/or apply rules of law, the explanation and/or application are so fundamentally undermined by error and confusion that the answer remains substantially incoherent.
- 0 The candidate presents no information relevant to the question.

Descriptors

Level	Explanation	Application
sound	The answer correctly identifies and accurately explains the relevant rule(s) in the central aspects of the potential content. Where appropriate, the explanations are supported by relevant statutory and/or case authority and illustration (which is adequately developed where necessary to explain the ratio and/or assist in the application to the facts). Where there are more marginal aspects of the rules, there may be some minor omissions or inaccuracies in the explanation of the rule(s) and/or supporting statutory/case authority and illustration.	The answer selects and emphasises the relevant facts from the scenario and makes close reference to them when explaining how the rules (including any supporting statutory and/or case authority) apply to afford a solution. Where appropriate, the application explores the effect of different interpretations of the rule(s) and/or of conflicting rules and/or of different interpretations of the facts. The solution suggested is clearly based on the explanation and application of the rules and is sustainable.
clear	The answer correctly identifies and accurately explains significant parts of the rule(s) in the central aspects of the potential content, though there are omissions of some part(s) of the rule(s), or errors in the explanation, in those central aspects. There may be a little over-emphasis on marginal aspects of the rules at the expense of some of the more central aspects. In the higher part of the level, statutory and/or case authority and illustration are used but there may be a little confusion and error in selection and/or explanation or the explanation may be limited. At the lower end of the level, there may be little evidence of statutory and/or case authority and illustration or more evident inaccuracies.	The answer selects and emphasises some of the relevant facts from the scenario and makes reference to them when explaining how the rules (including any supporting statutory and/or case authority) apply to afford a solution. The application, though otherwise persuasive, may fail to canvass credible alternative solutions (based on alternative interpretations of the law or of the facts) or there may be a little error or confusion in the application to the facts. The solution suggested is broadly based on the explanation and application of the rules, though there may be some evident weakness.
some	The answer correctly identifies and accurately explains a very limited part of the relevant rule(s) in the central aspects of the potential content. There may be a very evident imbalance between explanation of central and of more marginal aspects of the rule(s). Alternatively, the answer explains a more substantial part of the relevant rule(s) in the central aspects of the potential content but the explanations suffer from significant omission, error or confusion. Explanations may emerge only out of attempts to introduce relevant case authority and illustration. If introduced at all, statutory and/or case authority and illustration may be of marginal relevance or the explanation may be highly superficial or subject to significant inaccuracies or not properly used to support the explanation of the relevant rule(s).	The answer selects and emphasises one or two relevant facts from the scenario and makes reference to them without being able to suggest a coherent application. More broad-ranging attempts to identify and make reference to relevant facts display confusion or error. Alternatively, the answer tends to make simple assertions or assumptions about the way in which the rule(s) apply to the facts, so that application is general and unspecific, being unrelated to particular facts. The application fails to canvass credible alternative solutions (based on alternative interpretations of the law or of the facts). Little use is made of whatever statutory or case authority and illustration is incorporated in explanations. The solution suggested is only imprecisely related to the explanation of the rule(s).

Criminal Law (Offences against the Person)

Total for this question: 75 marks

- (a) Discuss the criminal liability of George and of John arising out of the text message and the use of the pepper spray. (25 marks)

Potential Content

- (A) In relation to the text message – the offence of assault, raising, in particular, issues of immediacy and of mens rea
- (B) In relation to the spray – assault (battery) occasioning abh and consideration of possible gbh or vice versa
- (C) In relation to the spray, possible defence of self-defence – need for use of force, striking the first blow, proportion between injury inflicted and harm anticipated

- (b) Discuss the criminal liability of Henry for the murder of Karen. (25 marks)

Potential Content

- (A) The elements of the offence of murder – in particular, mens rea and transferred malice
- (B) The defence of provocation – issues both of subjective (cooling off period) and objective tests
- (C) The defence of diminished responsibility – abnormality, origins, responsibility (insanity is an alternative but merits less credit)

(c) Choose one of the following'

In relation to murder (including voluntary manslaughter), consider the suggestion that the current law is unsatisfactory. (25 marks)

OR

In relation to involuntary manslaughter, consider the suggestion that the current law is unsatisfactory. (25 marks)

OR

In relation to non-fatal offences against the person, consider the suggestion that the current law is unsatisfactory. (25 marks)

Potential Content

Murder and voluntary manslaughter

- (A) General structural issues – the relationship between murder and manslaughter, the mandatory penalty of life imprisonment, should homicide be more or less structured
- (B) Murder issues – the elements of murder: actus reus and mens rea
- (C) Partial defence (voluntary manslaughter) issues

Involuntary manslaughter

- (A) Unlawful act issues
- (B) Gross negligence issues
- (C) General overview issues (such as scope of involuntary manslaughter, relationship with rest of homicide – discussion of liability of corporations is not required but will be credited)

Non-fatal offences

- (A) Structural issues (connected, for instance, with sentencing). Language and associated issues
- (B) Specific actus reus and mens rea issues

Note: Candidates may obtain maximum marks by dealing either with two or with three pc items in any of the above options. Those who deal with three will be expected to introduce less detail than those who deal with two. However, irrespective of the number of pc items dealt with, candidates should be marked on whichever of the schemes gives the greater credit.

2

Total for this question: 75 marks

- (a) Discuss the criminal liability of Les arising out of Mike's injury, and of Neil arising out of shaving off Les's beard. (25 marks)

Potential Content

- (A) In relation to Les and the injury to Mike – the offences of unlawful and malicious infliction of grievous bodily harm/causing gbh with intent and assault occasioning actual bodily harm, raising mens rea issues in particular; intoxication, consent

NB For sound, concentration on abh requires some mention of gbh, though not vice versa

- (B) In relation to Les and the shaving off of the beard – the offences of battery and of assault (battery) occasioning actual bodily harm

NB Battery without abh is max clear

- (b) Discuss the criminal liability of Neil and of Raisa for the involuntary manslaughter of Pam. (25 marks)

Potential Content

- (A) In relation to Neil – the offence of unlawful act manslaughter based on the criminal damage to the carpet/house. Causation issues involving the attempted escape and Raisa's possible negligence. Alternatively, gross negligence manslaughter

- (B) In relation to (A), the defence of automatism/intoxication – self-induced automatism through drugs

- (C) In relation to Raisa – the offence of gross negligence manslaughter

(c) Choose one of the following.

In relation to murder (including voluntary manslaughter), consider the suggestion that the current law is unsatisfactory. (25 marks)

OR

In relation to involuntary manslaughter, consider the suggestion that the current law is unsatisfactory. (25 marks)

Contract Law

Total for this question: 75 marks

- (a) Taking into account the rules on formation of contract, consider whether Brian has any rights and remedies against the Alpha Wine Club in connection with the case of red wine. (25 marks)

Potential Content

- (A) The offer/invitation to treat issue – the nature and implications of the direct communication to Brian
- (B) The acceptance issue (if an offer rather than an invitation to treat) and the e-mail. Remedies and consequences depending on conclusion in (A) and (B)

- (b) Taking into account the rules on misrepresentation and on breach of terms, consider whether Brian has any rights and remedies against the Alpha Wine Club in connection with the wine-tasting. (25 marks)

Potential Content

- (A) The issue of terms and breach – what are the terms of the contract for the wine-tasting; have they been broken; what remedies apply (for example, in the case of the loss of a chance)?
- (B) The issue of misrepresentation – the meaning of representation, reliance, kinds of misrepresentation, remedies

(c) Choose one of the following.

Relating your answer to the rules on offer and acceptance, consider how satisfactory are the rules on formation of contract. (25 marks)

OR

Relating your answer to the rules on consideration, consider how satisfactory are the rules on formation of contract. (25 marks)

OR

Relating your answer to the rules on intention to create legal relations, consider how satisfactory are the rules on formation of contract. (25 marks)

Potential Content

Offer and acceptance

- (A) Issues concerning offers: for example, problems of distinguishing between offers and invitations to treat, and between counter-offers and requests for further information; rules on withdrawal of offers
- (B) Issues concerning acceptance: for example, in different forms of communication, such as face-to-face, electronic and via the postal service; interpretation of prescriptive forms of acceptance

Note: These issues may be approached as part of a consideration of broader problems, such as the 'battle of the forms' or the difficulties in adapting the rules to cope with new technology.

Consideration

- (A) Issues concerning adequacy of consideration
- (B) Issues concerning sufficiency (past consideration, existing duties as consideration)

Intention to create legal relations

- (A) General issues concerning the need for intention and the relationship with consideration
- (B) Issues concerning the classification of agreements and the associated presumptions

4Total for this question: 75 marks

- (a) Taking into account the rules on formation of contract, consider whether Edmund has any rights and remedies against Craig and/or David in connection with the repairs to the roof. (25 marks)

Potential Content

- (A) In relation to Craig – issues of formation concerning intention to create legal relations and certainty of terms. Conclusions about the existence of a contract between Craig and Edmund. Remedies
- (B) In relation to David – issues of formation concerning consideration and promises to perform an existing duty owed to a third person. Conclusions about the existence of a contract between David and Edmund. Remedies

NB Discussion of remedies should be appropriate to the conclusions drawn in (A) and (B).

- (b) Taking into account the rules on breach and on frustration of contract, consider the rights and remedies of Edmund and of Fiona in connection with the contract for the alterations to Fiona's house. (25 marks)

Potential Content

- (A) Possible anticipatory breach by Fiona in relation to delaying the start of the work (consequence if the innocent party treats the contract as still subsisting but the contract is subsequently frustrated). The remedy for breach if the contract is not frustrated – expenses and losses incurred by Edmund
- (B) The issue of frustration – is the contract frustrated by the designation of the conservation area? Is it attributable to fault on Fiona's part? Effect of the Law Reform (Frustrated Contracts) Act 1943 if the contract is frustrated – recovery by Fiona of sums already paid, claim for expenses incurred/benefit provided(?) by Edmund

(c) Choose one of the following.
