Paper 1 Listening: Music of the Western Tradition

May/June 2006

CONFIDENTIAL INSTRUCTIONS

2 hours

Great care should be taken that any confidential information given does not reach the candidates either directly or indirectly.

INSTRUCTIONS TO INVIGILATORS

Candidates are permitted to bring into the examination room unedited CD recordings of the Prescribed Works:

Section A

Beethoven, Symphony no. 5 in C minor, op. 67

Haydn, Trumpet Concerto, Hob VIIe: 1

Mozart, Symphony no. 40 in G minor, KV 550

Schubert, The Trout Quintet, D 667 (fourth movement or complete if preferred)

These may be played on personal CD players using headphones. All written material in the CD cases must be removed (including texts). Certified copies of the CDs may be used, provided that these are unedited and are destroyed immediately after the examination. The Examinations Officer will be required to certify that such copies contain only performances of the Prescribed Works (and no extra material, e.g. speech, has been added).

No scores may be used in the examination.

No recordings may be used in answering questions in Sections B or C.

This document consists of 1 printed page and 1 blank page.

Permission to reproduce items where third-party owned material protected by copyright is included has been sought and cleared where possible. Every reasonable effort has been made by the publisher (UCLES) to trace copyright holders, but if any items requiring clearance have unwittingly been included, the publisher will be pleased to make amends at the earliest possible opportunity.
