At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [ ] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 2 printed pages.

Answer two questions, each from a different section.

Section A

- 1 'Functionalist theories of socialisation fail to reflect the complex nature of social interaction.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 2 'The degree to which there are similarities between sociology and the natural sciences has been exaggerated.' Explain and assess this view. [25]

Section B

- 3 'Data derived from the use of quantitative research methods is low in validity and therefore has little value in sociological research.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 4 'The depth of understanding achieved using unstructured interviews more than outweighs the practical limitations of this research method.' Explain and assess this view. [25]

Section C

- 5 'Differences in income and wealth benefit only the rich and powerful groups in society.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 6 'There is no longer inequality between males and females in modern industrial societies.' Explain and assess this view. [25]
