Literature (English)*

Syllabus code 0476

For examination in June and November 2013

UNIVERSITY of CAMBRIDGE
International Examinations

*This syllabus is accredited for use in England, Wales and Northern Ireland as a Cambridge International Level 1/Level 2 Certificate.

There are two syllabuses for Literature (English): 0476 (Cambridge International Certificate) and 0486 (IGCSE).

Syllabus 0476 has been accredited by the regulator, Ofqual, for use in state maintained schools in England because it meets the requirements of the English National Curriculum. It requires all candidates taking it to write on Shakespeare for Paper 1, and to take an Unseen component. (Note: this remains an available option within Syllabus 0486.)

Independent schools in the UK may enter for either syllabus 0476 or 0486.

State maintained schools in England may enter candidates for syllabus 0476 only.

Schools outside the UK should contact CIE if they wish to enter candidates for syllabus 0476 instead of syllabus 0486.

Please contact international@cie.org.uk or call 00 44 (0)1223 553554 should you require further information.

1. Introduction

1.1 Why choose Cambridge?

University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) is the world's largest provider of international qualifications. Around 1.5 million students from 150 countries enter Cambridge examinations every year. What makes educators around the world choose Cambridge?

Recognition

Cambridge IGCSE is internationally recognised by schools, universities and employers as equivalent to UK GCSE. Cambridge IGCSE is excellent preparation for A/AS Level, the Advanced International Certificate of Education (AICE), US Advanced Placement Programme and the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma. Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/recognition.

Support

CIE provides a world-class support service for teachers and exams officers. We offer a wide range of teacher materials to Centres, plus teacher training (online and face-to-face) and student support materials. Exams officers can trust in reliable, efficient administration of exams entry and excellent, personal support from CIE Customer Services. Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/teachers.

Excellence in education

Cambridge qualifications develop successful students. They build not only understanding and knowledge required for progression, but also learning and thinking skills that help students become independent learners and equip them for life.

Not-for-profit, part of the University of Cambridge

CIE is part of Cambridge Assessment, a not-for-profit organisation and part of the University of Cambridge. The needs of teachers and learners are at the core of what we do. CIE invests constantly in improving its qualifications and services. We draw upon education research in developing our qualifications.

1. Introduction

1.2 Why choose Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English)?

Cambridge IGCSE Literature (English) is accepted by universities and employers as proof of real knowledge and understanding. Successful candidates gain lifelong skills, including the ability to:

- Read, interpret and evaluate texts through the study of literature in English;
- Develop an understanding of literal and implicit meaning, relevant contexts and of the deeper themes or attitudes that may be expressed;
- Recognise and appreciate the ways in which writers use English to achieve a range of effects;
- Present an informed, personal response to materials they have studied;
- Explore wider and universal issues, promoting students' better understanding of themselves and of the world around them.

1.3 Cambridge International Certificate of Education (ICE)

Cambridge ICE is the group award of the International General Certificate of Secondary Education (IGCSE). It requires the study of subjects drawn from the five different IGCSE subject groups. It gives schools the opportunity to benefit from offering a broad and balanced curriculum by recognising the achievements of students who pass examinations in at least seven subjects, including two languages, and one subject from each of the other subject groups.

The Cambridge portfolio of IGCSE qualifications provides a solid foundation for higher level courses such as GCE A and AS Levels and the International Baccalaureate Diploma as well as excellent preparation for employment.

A wide range of IGCSE subjects is available and these are grouped into five curriculum areas. Literature (English) falls into Group II, Humanities and Social Sciences.

Learn more about ICE at www.cie.org.uk/qualifications/academic/middlesec/ice.

1. Introduction

1.4 UK schools

Syllabus 0476 is accredited for use in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Information on the accredited version of this syllabus can be found in the appendix to this document.

Achievement and Attainment Tables

Certain Cambridge IGCSEs and Cambridge International Certificates are now included in the Achievement and Attainment Tables for schools in England. The full range of grades (A*–G) is available.

Availability

This syllabus is examined in the May/June examination session and the October/November examination session.

It is available in the UK only.

This syllabus is available to private candidates.

* This syllabus is accredited for use in England, Wales and Northern Ireland as Cambridge International Level 1/Level 2 Certificate.

2. Assessment at a glance

Combining these syllabuses with other syllabuses

Candidates can combine these either of these syllabuses in an examination session with any other CIE syllabus, except:

- syllabuses with the same title at the same level
- 2010 O Level Literature in English

Please note that IGCSE, Cambridge International Level 1/Level 2 Certificates and O Level syllabuses are at the same level.

3. Syllabus aims and objectives

3.1 Aims

The syllabus aims, which are not listed in order of priority, are to encourage and develop candidates' ability to:

- enjoy the experience of reading literature;
- understand and respond to literary texts in different forms and from different periods and cultures;
- communicate an informed personal response appropriately and effectively;
- appreciate different ways in which writers achieve their effects;
- experience literature's contribution to aesthetic, imaginative and intellectual growth;
- explore the contribution of literature to an understanding of areas of human concern.

3.2 Assessment objectives

There are four Assessment Objectives (AOs) and candidates are assessed on their ability to:

AO1: Show detailed knowledge of the content of literary texts in the three main forms (Drama, Poetry, and Prose);

AO2: Understand the meanings of literary texts and their contexts, and explore texts beyond surface meanings to show deeper awareness of ideas and attitudes;

AO3: Recognise and appreciate ways in which writers use language, structure, and form to create and shape meanings and effects;

AO4: Communicate a sensitive and informed personal response to literary texts.

Each of the assessment objectives is present in each of the papers, with the following weighting:

Syllabus 0486

	Paper 1	Paper 2	Paper 3	Paper 4	Paper 5
AO1	25%	25%	25%	25%	25%
AO2	25%	25%	25%	25%	25%

4. Description of papers (syllabus 0486)

4.1 Paper 1: Set Texts – Open books

2 hours 15 minutes

This paper has three sections: Drama, Prose and Poetry. Candidates answer one question from each section. All questions carry equal marks. Candidates may take their set texts into the exam, but these texts must not contain personal annotations, highlighting or underlining.

On each set text, candidates have a choice of three questions as follows:

- Poetry – one passage-based question and two essay questions.
- Drama – one passage-based question, one essay question, one 'empathic' question (see below for more details).
- Prose – one passage-based question, one essay question, one 'empathic' question (see below for more details).

Candidates must answer at least one passage-based question and at least one essay question.

On the Question Paper, passage-based questions are indicated by an asterisk (*) and essay questions are indicated by a dagger symbol (†).

'Empathic' questions address the same assessment objectives as the essay and passage-based questions. These questions test knowledge, understanding and response, but give candidates the opportunity to engage more imaginatively with the text by assuming a suitable 'voice' (i.e. a manner of speaking for a specific character).

Passage-based questions ask candidates to re-read a specific passage or poem from the set text before answering. The passage/poem is printed on the exam paper.

All questions encourage an informed personal response and test all assessment objectives. This means that candidates will have to demonstrate:

- their personal response, sometimes directly (answering questions such as 'What do you think?', 'What are your feelings about...?') and sometimes by implication (such as 'Explore the ways in which...');
- their knowledge of the text through the use of close reference to detail and use of quotations from the text;
- their understanding of characters, relationships, situations and themes;
- their understanding of the writer's intentions and methods, and response to the writer's use of language.

4. Description of papers (syllabus 0486)

4.2 Paper 2: Coursework portfolio (syllabus 0486 only)

Candidates submit a portfolio of two assignments.

- Each assignment should be between 600–1000 words and should be based on the study of one complete text, equivalent in scope and demand to a set text on Paper 1.
- The assignments must be on different texts.
- One of the assignments (but not two) may be on a text prepared for Paper 1. (There is no requirement to include work on a Paper 1 text.)

Assignments can be handwritten, typed or word processed.

The phrasing of each assignment's title must allow for assessment in relation to all the Assessment Objectives.

Coursework is assessed and marked by the Centre, and a sample is submitted for external moderation by CIE. Teachers responsible for assessing Coursework must be accredited by CIE; accreditation is usually awarded after the teacher has successfully completed the Coursework Training Handbook.

For more information and guidance on creating, presenting and marking the Coursework, see Section 9.

4.3 Paper 3: Unseen

1 hour 15 minutes

Paper 3 comprises two questions, each asking candidates for a critical commentary on (and appreciation of) previously unseen writing printed on the question paper. Candidates answer one question only.

One question is based on a passage of literary prose (such as an extract from a novel or a short story); the other question is based on a poem, or extract of a poem.

Candidates are advised to spend around 20 minutes reading their selected question and planning their answer before starting to write.

There are no set texts for this paper.

4. Description of papers (syllabus 0486)

4.4 Paper 4: Set texts – Closed books A (syllabus 0486 only)

2 hours 15 minutes

The paper has three sections: Drama, Poetry, and Prose. Candidates answer one question from each section. All questions carry equal marks. This is a 'Closed books' paper: candidates may not take their set texts into the exam room.

On each text, candidates have a choice of three questions:

- Poetry – one passage-based question, and two essay questions;
- Drama – one passage-based question, one essay question, one 'empathic' question (see below for more detail);
- Prose – one passage-based question, one essay question, one 'empathic' question (see below for more detail).

Candidates must answer at least one passage-based question and at least one essay question.

On the Question Paper, passage-based questions are indicated by an asterisk (*) and essay questions are indicated by a dagger symbol (†).

'Empathic' questions address the same assessment objectives as the essay and passage-based questions. These questions test knowledge, understanding and response, but give candidates the opportunity to engage more imaginatively with the text by assuming a suitable 'voice' (i.e. a manner of speaking for a specific character).

Passage-based questions ask candidates to re-read a specific passage or poem from the set text. The passage/poem is printed on the exam paper.

All questions encourage an informed personal response and test all assessment objectives. This means that candidates will have to demonstrate:

- their personal response, sometimes directly (answering questions such as 'What do you think?', 'What are your feelings about...?') and sometimes by implication (such as 'Explore the ways in which...');
- their knowledge of the text through the use of close reference to detail and use of quotations from the text;
- their understanding of characters, relationships, situations and themes;
- their understanding of the writer's intentions and methods, and their response to the writer's use of language.

4. Description of papers (syllabus 0486)

4.5 Paper 5: Set texts – Closed books B (syllabus 0486 only)

45 minutes

In this paper, candidates answer one question on one set text. All questions carry equal marks. This a 'Closed books' paper: candidates may not take their set texts into the exam room.

On each set text, candidates have a choice of three questions as follows:

- Poetry – one passage-based question and two essay questions.
- Drama – one passage-based question, one essay question, one 'empathic' question (see below for more details).
- Prose – one passage-based question, one essay question, one 'empathic' question (see below for more details).

'Empathic' questions address the same assessment objectives as the essay and passage-based questions. These questions test knowledge, understanding and response, but give candidates the opportunity to engage more imaginatively with the text by assuming a suitable 'voice' (i.e. a manner of speaking for a specific character).

Passage-based questions ask candidates to re-read a specific passage or poem from the set text before answering. The chapter, scene or page reference will be given on the exam paper (references to several available editions will be provided if necessary).

All questions encourage an informed personal response and test all assessment objectives. This means that candidates will have to demonstrate:

- their personal response, sometimes directly (answering questions such as 'What do you think?', 'What are your feelings about...?') and sometimes by implication (such as 'Explore the ways in which...');
- their knowledge of the text through the use of close reference to detail and use of quotations from the text;
- their understanding of characters, relationships, situations and themes;
- their understanding of the writer's intentions and methods, and their response to the writer's use of language.

5. Description of papers (syllabus 0476)

8. Grade descriptions

Grade descriptions

Grade A

A Grade A candidate will have demonstrated the ability to:

- sustain a perceptive and convincing response with well-chosen detail of narrative and situation;
- demonstrate clear critical/analytical understanding of the author's intentions and the text's deeper implications and the attitudes it displays;
- make much well-selected reference to the text;
- respond sensitively and in detail to the way language works in the text;
- communicate a considered and reflective personal response to the text.

Grade C

A Grade C candidate will have demonstrated the ability to:

- make a reasonably sustained/extended response with detail of narrative and situation;
- show understanding of the author's intentions and some of the text's deeper implications and the attitudes it displays;
- show some thoroughness in use of the text for support;
- make some response to the way language works in the text;
- communicate an informed personal response to the text.

Grade F

A Grade F candidate will have demonstrated the ability to:

- make a few straightforward points in terms of narrative and situation;
- show a few signs of understanding of the author's intentions and the surface meanings of the text;
- make a little reference to the text;
- show evidence of a simple personal response to the text.

9. Coursework guidance (syllabus 0486)

9.1 Coursework portfolio (Paper 2) (syllabus 0486): guidance notes

Teachers may not undertake Centre-based assessment until they have been accredited by CIE; accreditation usually follows the successful completion of the Coursework Training Handbook. Contact CIE for more information.

For further guidance and for the general regulations concerning school-based Coursework assessment, see the Handbook for Centres.

General guidance

Portfolio format

- The portfolio will contain two assignments, each on a different text.
- The assignments must be securely fastened and clearly marked with the candidate's name, number and the Centre number.
- Work sent to CIE for external moderation must not be sent in clear plastic folders or ring binders. A completed Candidate Record Card must be included with each portfolio (see forms at rear of this syllabus).

Assignments: general issues

- Assignments usually follow a programme of study undertaken by a teaching group. The best assignments usually follow a shared learning experience, but are selected by the candidate. It is recommended that the teacher and the candidate discuss which are the best assignments to submit.
- Candidates do not have to produce assignments under timed examination-type conditions.
- Assignments may be completed at any stage during the course. Candidates should undertake more than two assignments to provide a choice of assignments for their portfolio.

Assignments: texts

- Assignment texts can be chosen by teachers or by candidates and teachers together. They must be originally written in English, and of a quality appropriate for study at IGCSE.
- Candidates within a Centre do not have to submit assignments on the same texts.
- Assignments should show that the candidate has studied the whole text.
- If poetry or short stories are used for an assignment, candidates should cover a minimum of two poems or stories. Candidates are not required to compare poems or stories within the assignment, as it is assumed that the assignment is based on the study of a wider selection of poems or stories broadly equivalent to a poetry or short stories set text.

9. Coursework guidance (syllabus 0486)

Drafting assignments

- A general discussion on the progress of assignments is a natural part of the teacher/candidate relationship, as it is for other parts of the exam. In addition, if plans and first drafts are completed under teacher supervision, then teachers can be reassured of the authenticity of the final assignment.
- Teachers should not, however, mark, correct or edit draft assignment material; candidates can certainly draft and redraft work, but teachers should give only general guidance during this phase.

Length of assignments

- Assignments should be between 600 and 1000 words. This is a guideline. Candidates must not confuse length with quality. Although no assignment is penalised per se because of its length, assignments significantly under or over this word count guidance may be self-penalising.

Presenting assignments

- Candidates may use typewriters or word processors, or can write their assignments by hand. Candidates should remember to carefully proofread their work.

Checking portfolios for authenticity

- It is the Centre's responsibility to make sure all Coursework is the candidate's original work. Where appropriate, candidates should provide references to secondary source material, listing these at the end of the assignment.

Feedback following external moderation

- Centres receive a brief report from the external moderator following the assessment of their candidates' portfolios, usually at the same time as the final exam results.

The Handbook for Centres contains guidance and general regulations about internal (school-based) assessment of Coursework

9. Coursework guidance (syllabus 0486)

9.2 Marking and moderating Coursework

As well as commenting on the overall quality of the portfolio, recorded on the Individual Candidate Record Card, teachers must mark each assignment by indicating the strengths and errors and by providing a final comment.

Each assignment is to be marked out of a total of 25, in accordance with the criteria which follow. Assessment usually involves balancing strengths and weaknesses in the candidate's work. If a candidate submits no assignment, a mark of zero must be recorded.

Internal Moderation

If several teachers in a Centre are involved in internal assessment, then the Centre must make sure that all candidates are assessed to a common standard in order to produce a reliable order of rank. Centre assessments will then be subject to external moderation.

External Moderation

External moderation of internal assessment is carried out by CIE and CIE must receive internally moderated marks for all candidates by 30 April for the May/June examination and by 31 October for the November examination. These marks may be submitted either by using MS1 mark sheets or by using Cameo as described in the Handbook for Centres.

On receiving marks, CIE draws up a list of sample candidates whose work will be moderated (a further sample may also be requested), and will ask the Centre to immediately send these candidates' Coursework portfolios. Individual Candidate Record Cards and Coursework Assessment Summary Forms (copies of which may be found at the back of this syllabus booklet) must be sent with the Coursework.

Further information about external moderation may be found in the Handbook for Centres and the Administrative Guide for Centres.

9. Coursework guidance (syllabus 0486)

9.3 Assessment criteria for Coursework

	0 / 0–1	No answer / Insufficient to meet the criteria for Band 8.
Band 8	2 3 4	Limited attempt to respond shows some limited understanding of simple/literal meaning
Band 7	5 6 7	Some evidence of simple personal response - makes a few straightforward comments - shows a few signs of understanding the surface meaning of the text - makes a little reference to the text
Band 6	8 9 10	Attempts to communicate a basic personal response - makes some relevant comments - shows a basic understanding of surface meaning of the text - makes a little supporting reference to the text
Band 5	11 12 13	Begins to develop a personal response - shows some understanding of meaning - makes a little reference to the language of the text (beginning to assume a voice in an empathic task) - uses some supporting textual detail
Band 4	14 15 16	Makes a reasonably developed personal response - shows understanding of the text and some of its deeper implications - makes some response to the way the writer uses language (using suitable features of expression in an empathic task) - shows some thoroughness in the use of supporting evidence from the text
Band 3	17 18 19	Makes a well-developed and detailed personal response - shows a clear understanding of the text and some of its deeper implications - makes a developed response to the way the writer achieves her/his effects (sustaining an appropriate voice in an empathic task) - supports with careful and relevant reference to the text
Band 2	20 21 22	Sustains a perceptive and convincing personal response - shows a clear critical understanding of the text - responds sensitively and in detail to the way the writer achieves her/his effects (sustaining a convincing voice in an empathic task) - integrates much well-selected reference to the text
Band 1	23 24 25	Answers in this band have all the qualities of Band 2 work, with further insight, sensitivity, individuality and flair. They show complete and sustained engagement with both text and task.

10. Appendix A

10.1 Resources: set text editions

Unless otherwise stated, candidates may use any edition of the set text, as long as it is not an abridged or simplified version. There are many editions of set texts available, with newer editions sometimes including notes (often displayed on facing pages), illustrations, activities and further resources which make these texts particularly useful and user-friendly.

Any of these texts may be taken into the examination room for Paper 1 (Open Books), but the text must not contain any annotations made by the candidate.

The edition of Shakespeare used for setting extract questions on examination papers is the Alexander Text of The Complete Works of William Shakespeare ed. Peter Alexander (Collins, 1951; new edition 2006, introduced by Peter Ackroyd). However, this complete standard one volume edition is not recommended for classroom study of individual plays.

Some examples of reliable and useful series:

Cambridge School Shakespeare series	edited R Gibson
Cambridge Literature series (includes classics of poetry, prose and drama)	edited J Baxter
Penguin Shakespeare	Penguin
Oxford School Shakespeare	Oxford University Press
Heinemann Shakespeare	Heinemann
Longman School Shakespeare	Pearson – Longman (series editor John O'Connor) (useful for candidates with a second language English background)

Resources are also listed on CIE's public website at www.cie.org.uk. Please visit this site on a regular basis as the Resource lists are updated through the year.

Access to teachers' email discussion groups, suggested schemes of work and regularly updated resource lists may be found on the CIE Teacher Support website at <http://teachers.cie.org.uk>. This website is available to teachers at registered CIE Centres.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING INDIVIDUAL CANDIDATE RECORD CARD

1. Complete the information at the head of the form.
2. Mark the assignments according to instructions given in the Syllabus booklet.
3. Enter marks in the appropriate spaces. Complete all sections of the form.
4. It is essential that the marks of candidates from different teaching groups within each Centre are moderated internally. This means that the marks awarded to all candidates within a Centre must be brought to a common standard by the teacher responsible for co-ordinating the internal assessment (i.e. the internal moderator), and a single valid and reliable set of marks should be produced which reflects the relative attainment of all the candidates in the Coursework component at the Centre.
5. Transfer the marks to the Coursework Assessment Summary Form in accordance with the instructions provided on the back of that document.
6. Retain all Individual Candidate Record Cards and Coursework which will be required for external moderation. See also the instructions on the Coursework Assessment Summary Form.

Note: These Record Cards are to be used by teachers only for candidates who have undertaken Coursework as part of their IGCSE Literature Course.

A. INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING COURSEWORK ASSESSMENT SUMMARY FORMS

1. Complete the information at the head of the form.
2. List the candidates in an order which will allow ease of transfer of information to a computer-printed Coursework mark sheet MS1 at a later stage (i.e. in candidate index number order, where this is known; see item B.1 below). Show the teaching group or set for each candidate. The initials of the teacher may be used to indicate group or set.
3. Transfer each candidate's marks from her/his Individual Candidate Record Card to this form as follows:
 - (a) In the column headed 'Total Mark', enter the total mark awarded before internal moderation took place.
 - (b) In the column headed 'Internally Moderated Mark', enter the total mark awarded after internal moderation took place.
4. Both the teacher completing the form and the internal moderator (or moderators) should check the form and complete and sign the bottom portion.

B. PROCEDURES FOR EXTERNAL MODERATION

1. University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) sends a computer-printed Coursework mark sheet MS1 to each centre (in late March for the June examination and in early October for the November examination) showing the names and index numbers of each candidate. Transfer the total internally moderated mark for each candidate from the Coursework Assessment Summary Form to the computer-printed Coursework mark sheet MS1.
2. The top copy of the computer-printed Coursework mark sheet MS1 must be dispatched in the specially provided envelope to arrive as soon as possible at CIE but no later than 30 April for the June examination and 31 October for the November examination.
3. CIE will select a list of candidates whose work is required for external moderation. As soon as this list is received, send the candidates' work with the corresponding Individual Candidate Record Cards, this summary form and the second copy of the computer-printed mark sheet(s) (MS1), to CIE. Indicate the candidates who are in the sample by means of an asterisk (*) against the candidates' names overleaf.
4. CIE reserves the right to ask for further samples of Coursework.

11. Appendix B: Additional information

Guided learning hours

IGCSE syllabuses are designed on the assumption that candidates have about 130 guided learning hours per subject over the duration of the course. ('Guided learning hours' include direct teaching and any other supervised or directed study time. They do not include private study by the candidate.)

However, this figure is for guidance only, and the number of hours required may vary according to local curricular practice and the candidates' prior experience of the subject.

Recommended prior learning

We recommend that candidates who are beginning this course should have previously studied some creative writing (prose/poetry and/or drama) in English.

Progression

IGCSE Certificates are general qualifications that enable candidates to progress either directly to employment, or to proceed to further qualifications.

Candidates who are awarded grades C to A* in IGCSE Literature (English) are well prepared to follow courses leading to AS and A Level English Literature, or the equivalent.

Component codes

Because of local variations, in some cases component codes will be different in instructions about making entries for examinations and timetables from those printed in this syllabus, but the component names will be unchanged to make identification straightforward.

Grading and reporting

IGCSE results are shown by one of the grades A*, A, B, C, D, E, F or G indicating the standard achieved, Grade A* being the highest and Grade G the lowest. 'Ungraded' indicates that the candidate's performance fell short of the standard required for Grade G. 'Ungraded' will be reported on the statement of results but not on the certificate. For some language syllabuses CIE also reports separate oral endorsement grades on a scale of 1 to 5 (1 being the highest).

Percentage uniform marks are also provided on each candidate's statement of results to supplement their grade for a syllabus. They are determined in this way:

- A candidate who obtains...
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade A* obtains a percentage uniform mark of 90%.
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade A obtains a percentage uniform mark of 80%.
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade B obtains a percentage uniform mark of 70%.
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade C obtains a percentage uniform mark of 60%.
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade D obtains a percentage uniform mark of 50%.

11. Appendix B: Additional information

- ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade E obtains a percentage uniform mark of 40%.
- ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade F obtains a percentage uniform mark of 30%.
- ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade G obtains a percentage uniform mark of 20%.
- ... no marks receives a percentage uniform mark of 0%.

Candidates whose mark is none of the above receive a percentage mark in between those stated according to the position of their mark in relation to the grade 'thresholds' (i.e. the minimum mark for obtaining a grade). For example, a candidate whose mark is halfway between the minimum for a Grade C and the minimum for a Grade D (and whose grade is therefore D) receives a percentage uniform mark of 55%.

The uniform percentage mark is stated at syllabus level only. It is not the same as the 'raw' mark obtained by the candidate, since it depends on the position of the grade thresholds (which may vary from one session to another and from one subject to another) and it has been turned into a percentage.

Resources

Copies of syllabuses, the most recent question papers and Principal Examiners' reports for teachers are available on the Syllabus and Support Materials CD-ROM, which is sent to all CIE Centres.

Resources are also listed on CIE's public website at www.cie.org.uk. Please visit this site on a regular basis as the Resource lists are updated through the year.

Access to teachers' email discussion groups, suggested schemes of work and regularly updated resource lists may be found on the CIE Teacher Support website at <http://teachers.cie.org.uk>. This website is available to teachers at registered CIE Centres.

12. Appendix C: Additional information – Cambridge International Certificates

Syllabus 0476 is accredited for use in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Additional information on this accredited version is provided below.

Prior Learning

Candidates in England who are beginning this course should normally have followed the Key Stage 3 programme of study within the National Curriculum for England.

Other candidates beginning this course should have achieved an equivalent level of general education.

NQF Level

This qualification is accredited by the regulatory authority for England, Ofqual, as part of the National Qualifications Framework as a Cambridge International Level 1/Level 2 Certificate.

Candidates who gain grades G to D will have achieved an award at Level 1 of the National Qualifications Framework.

Candidates who gain grades C to A* will have achieved an award at Level 2 of the National Qualifications Framework.

Progression

Cambridge International Level 1/Level 2 Certificates are general qualifications that enable candidates to progress either directly to employment, or to proceed to further qualifications.

This syllabus provides a foundation for further study at Levels 2 and 3 in the National Qualifications Framework, including GCSE, AS and A Level GCE, and Cambridge Pre-U qualifications.

Candidates who are awarded grades C to A* are well prepared to follow courses leading to Level 3 AS and A Level GCE English Literature, Cambridge Pre-U Literature in English or the Cambridge International AS and A Level English Literature.

Guided Learning Hours

The number of guided learning hours required for this course is 130.

Guided learning hours are used to calculate the funding for courses in state schools in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Outside England, Wales and Northern Ireland, the number of guided learning hours should not be equated to the total number of hours required by candidates to follow the course as the definition makes assumptions about prior learning and does not include some types of learning time.

12. Appendix C: Additional information – Cambridge International Certificates

Overlapping Qualifications

Centres in England, Wales and Northern Ireland should be aware that every syllabus is assigned to a national classification code indicating the subject area to which it belongs. Candidates who enter for more than one qualification with the same classification code will have only one grade (the highest) counted for the purpose of the school and college performance tables.

The classification code for this syllabus is 5110.

Spiritual, Ethical, Social, Legislative, Economic and Cultural Issues

Study of Literature (English) promotes in candidates an understanding of the cultural contexts from which spring the many forms and varieties of literature written in English. The study of a range of texts will raise moral and ethical issues and will help develop candidates' awareness of other cultures and widen their appreciation of social and cultural issues. All components prompt consideration of these issues.

Sustainable Development, Health and Safety Considerations and International Developments

Through the study of a variety of texts, opportunities may arise to explore ideas on sustainable development, environmental issues, health and safety, and the international dimension.

Avoidance of Bias

CIE has taken great care in the preparation of this syllabus and assessment materials to avoid bias of any kind.

Language

This syllabus and the associated assessment materials are available in English only.

Key Skills

The development of the Key skills of application of number, communication, and information technology, along with the wider Key Skills of improving your own learning and performance, working with others and problem solving can enhance teaching and learning strategies and motivate students towards learning independently.

This syllabus will provide opportunities to develop the key skills of

- communication
- information technology
- improving own learning and performance
- working with others
- problem solving.

12. Appendix C: Additional information – Cambridge International Certificates

The separately certificated Key Skills qualification recognises achievement in

- application of number
- communication
- information technology.

Further information on Key Skills can be found on the Ofqual website (www.ofqual.gov.uk).

Resources

Copies of syllabuses, the most recent question papers and Principal Examiners' reports for teachers are available on the Syllabus and Support Materials CD-ROM, which is sent to all CIE Centres.
