

O level Pakistan Studies 2059/01

Unit 4: How important was the work of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan to the development of the Pakistan Movement during the nineteenth century?

Recommended Prior Knowledge

A knowledge of the contribution made by the work of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan to the development of the Pakistan Movement

Context

This unit provides the detail of the basis on which the Pakistan Movement was founded

Outline

How important was the work of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan to the development of the Pakistan Movement during the nineteenth century?

AO	Learning outcomes	Suggested Teaching activities	Learning resources
1.1	What was his contribution to education, politics and religion?	Research Sir Syed's career. Construct a timeline and place on it the major contributions made in these fields.	The History & Culture of Pakistan pages 35-39 Pakistan. History, Culture and Government pages 39-43 Pakistan: An Historic and Contemporary Look pages 72-77
1.2	How important was his 'Two – Nation' Theory?	As above	Textbooks – as above The following web links relate to all areas of this unit: http://storyofpakistan.com/articletext.asp?artid=A020&Pg=3

AO	Learning outcomes	Suggested Teaching activities	Learning resources
			http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mughal_Empire
			http://www.storyofpakistan.com/article/xt.asp?artid=A020
			http://www.storyofpakistan.com/article/xt.asp?artid=A129
1.3	What was the Hindi-Urdu Controversy?	As above	Textbooks – as above
1.4	How successful was the Aligarh Movement?	As above	Textbooks – as above
		Notes should be made on each of the above sections using appropriate headings.
		Students revise the work completed at the end of this unit and complete past O level question parts (b) and (c)	Past questions papers – can be accessed by logging onto the Teacher Support website available from: http://www.cie.org.uk/profiles/teachers

