1. Introduction

1.1 Why choose Cambridge?

University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) is the world's largest provider of international qualifications. Around 1.5 million students from 150 countries enter Cambridge examinations every year. What makes educators around the world choose Cambridge?

Developed for an international audience

International O Levels have been designed specially for an international audience and are sensitive to the needs of different countries. These qualifications are designed for students whose first language may not be English and this is acknowledged throughout the examination process. The curriculum also allows teaching to be placed in a localised context, making it relevant in varying regions.

Recognition

Cambridge O Levels are internationally recognised by schools, universities and employers as equivalent to UK GCSE. They are excellent preparation for A/AS Level, the Advanced International Certificate of Education (AICE), US Advanced Placement Programme and the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma. CIE is accredited by the UK Government regulator, the Office of the Qualifications and Examinations Regulator (Ofqual). Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/recognition.

Support

CIE provides a world-class support service for teachers and exams officers. We offer a wide range of teacher materials to Centres, plus teacher training (online and face-to-face) and student support materials. Exams officers can trust in reliable, efficient administration of exams entry and excellent, personal support from CIE Customer Services. Learn more at www.cie.org.uk/teachers.

Excellence in education

Cambridge qualifications develop successful students. They not only build understanding and knowledge required for progression, but also learning and thinking skills that help students become independent learners and equip them for life.

Not-for-profit, part of the University of Cambridge

CIE is part of Cambridge Assessment, a not-for-profit organisation and part of the University of Cambridge. The needs of teachers and learners are at the core of what we do. CIE invests constantly in improving its qualifications and services. We draw upon education research in developing our qualifications.

1. Introduction

1.2 Why choose Cambridge O Level Religious Studies (Bible Knowledge)?

International O Levels are established qualifications that keep pace with educational developments and trends. The International O Level curriculum places emphasis on broad and balanced study across a wide range of subject areas. The curriculum is structured so that candidates attain both practical skills and theoretical knowledge.

Cambridge O Level Religious Studies (Bible Knowledge) is accepted by universities and employers as proof of knowledge and understanding.

The syllabus focuses on Christian origins. It encourages candidates to take a thoughtful approach to the study of the life and teaching of Jesus, as contained in the Gospel of Luke; it also considers the birth and development of the early church, as recorded in the Acts of the Apostles.

Candidates develop an enquiring and critical approach to the study of biblical texts and explore the religious, ethical and historical questions raised. The syllabus is open to candidates of any religion (or none), and both the New International Version and the Revised Standard Version of the Bible are used for quotations.

2. Assessment at a glance

Availability

This syllabus is examined in the May/June examination session and the October/November examination session.

This syllabus is available to private candidates.

Combining this with other syllabuses

Candidates can combine this syllabus in an examination session with any other CIE syllabus, except:

- syllabuses with the same title at the same level
- 0490 IGCSE Religious Studies
- 2049 O Level Religious Studies (Bible Knowledge) (Singapore)

Please note that IGCSE, Cambridge International Level 1/Level 2 Certificates and O Level syllabuses are at the same level.

3. Syllabus aims and objectives

3.1 Aims

The syllabus aims are to enable candidates to:

1. Acquire a knowledge of the life and teaching of Jesus, and the development of the early Christian church.
2. Develop an enquiring and critical approach to the study of biblical texts, the ideas they contain, and the ways in which they may be interpreted.
3. Identify and explore the religious, ethical and historical questions raised in the texts studied.
4. Attempt an informed response to issues arising out of their study.

3.2 Assessment objectives

Candidates should demonstrate they have studied the prescribed texts closely.

AO1: AO1 is primarily concerned with knowledge, and assesses candidates' ability to:

- Recall, select and present relevant points from the text and background information
- Use knowledge of stories and traditions contained in the texts to explain them with understanding

AO2: AO2 is concerned with understanding and evaluating the material, and assesses candidates' ability to:

- Use knowledge of the religious background of the Old and/or New Testaments, as appropriate, to show the significance for the author of the major themes in his writings.
- Identify and explain the particular interests and purpose(s) of the author of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles.
- Identify and explain the use of symbolism, parable, allegory, etc, in the texts studied.
- Evaluate the significance of major themes in the Lukan writings for religious and moral understanding.

4. Curriculum content

4.1 Versions of the Bible

- Schools may use whichever version of the Bible they prefer. Please note that the majority of modern translations are based on a much more accurate version of the text than the King James Bible, also known as the Authorised Version (1611).
- Both the New International Version (NIV) and the Revised Standard Version (RSV) are used for quotations included in question papers.
- Questions set in the examinations can be answered from any version of the Bible.

4.2 Syllabus content

Some knowledge of the religious, political and geographical background will be expected for both texts.

The topics listed are not exhaustive and only serve as examples; questions may be set on other topics.

4.2.1 The life and teaching of Jesus as portrayed in Luke's Gospel

Candidates study the gospel as a whole, as well as studying sections of the gospel in detail. Study of the gospel should include:

- Authorship, reason for writing and destination
- Events in Jesus' life – for example, birth, baptism, temptations, ministry, Last Supper, Gethsemane and arrest, trials, crucifixion, resurrection, ascension
- People connected with Jesus
- Miracles
- Parables
- Prominence given to women
- Jesus' attitude towards sinners, the under-privileged and down-trodden
- Growth of criticism and opposition to Jesus
- The theme of universalism in the gospel
- Jesus' teaching on: prayer, riches, discipleship, Kingdom of God, greatness and humility, the Law and the sabbath, repentance and forgiveness, divorce and marriage
- Jesus' use of the Old Testament.

4. Curriculum content

4.2.2 The birth of the early church as portrayed in the Acts of the Apostles, chapters 1–21, verse 15

Candidates study the prescribed chapters of Acts in detail – i.e. chapters 1 to 21, verse 15. They are also encouraged to read the rest of the Acts to help them understand the structure and purpose of the book. Questions are only set on material in the prescribed chapters. Study of Acts should include:

- Authorship – connection between Luke’s Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles
- Baptism of Jews and Gentiles (including the Ethiopian, Cornelius, Samaritans, those at Syrian Antioch, converts on Paul’s journeys)
- Holy Spirit – Pentecost, Cornelius, Paul’s journeys
- Persecution of the Church – in Jerusalem, the dispersion, Paul’s journeys
- Gentile admission – Council of Jerusalem – a church independent from Judaism – resulting problems
- Preaching and speeches of Peter, Stephen, Paul and James
- Missionary journeys of Paul and Barnabas – attitude of the Roman authorities, Jews and pagans to the church
- Ministry in the church – apostles, deacons, elders
- Prophets.

5. Notes on teaching

1. Teachers can use any modern scholarly translation of the Bible, which is widely used in the mainstream Christian churches. Quotations and wording of questions are based on the New International Version (NIV) and the Revised Standard Version (RSV).
2. The educational process is not intended solely for an examination. The examination is a natural outcome of a successful teaching process. Teachers should use a variety of educational practices and techniques to enable candidates to enjoy learning, to think and draw conclusions for themselves.
3. Candidates should be given the opportunity to discuss what they learn and to appreciate the views of others, even when these views differ from their own. In Religious Studies, tolerance of others and their views is fundamental. Candidates should look at the teaching of Jesus and how his teaching applied to his own time, to the time of the early church (particularly as it spread to the gentile world), and to modern times.
4. Candidates should study topics and relate material from different parts of the text. One suggestion is that, initially, candidates should read through the complete text of the Gospel of Luke and Acts for an overview. Then a detailed and critical reading and study of the text should be made. Often, in studying a section of the text, reference to another passage is helpful.
5. Work should be planned so that candidates can review themes which are spread throughout the book – for example, Jesus' teaching on prayer, riches, forgiveness, etc. In the Acts of the Apostles, the whole of the set text needs to be reviewed to see how the church evolved, from grappling with the entry of the gentiles into a Jewish based community, to becoming independent from Judaism, to adapting its patterns of ministry and worship to meet the needs of gentile converts.
6. A list of textbooks and resources is provided. No particular book is singled out. The books listed are those which should be available and have proved helpful in the past. Teachers will also find reputable concordances to be of value – for example, Cruden's Concordance.
7. Candidates should be allowed to practise answering questions under timed, examination conditions and to discuss their work afterwards. A good technique is helpful in examinations but needs to be worked out and practised.

6. Level descriptors

Levels of response are used when marking Paper 2. There are four levels of response for each assessment objective. A descriptor and the marks available for each level are detailed below.

AO1 (Knowledge)

Level	Mark	Level Descriptor
4	7	Excellent. A thorough, well-developed and substantial response. Demonstrates extensive and highly accurate knowledge of the subject, moving far beyond merely the main points. Likely to quote the text both at length and accurately, often verbatim. Exceptional and thoughtful.
3	5–6	Good. Addresses the question confidently, competently and coherently. Demonstrates sound, quite detailed and generally accurate knowledge of the subject matter. Covers the main points. May quote from the text fairly extensively, and on the whole, quite accurately.
2	3–4	Satisfactory. A fair, mainly relevant but generally undeveloped response. The candidate demonstrates some factual knowledge, which is fairly accurate and slightly wider than at basic level. Some of the main points are covered but lack substance.
1	1–2	Basic. An attempt to answer the question, but lacks potential and/or is unfinished. Very limited knowledge of the subject. Response includes only a small amount of relevant material. Facts are reported in basic outline only, often inaccurately, though some credible points are made.
0	0	Irrelevant. No attempt whatsoever to answer the set question, or the candidate provides a wholly irrelevant response.

6. Level descriptors

AO2 (Understanding/Discussion)

Level	Mark	Level Descriptor
4	5	Excellent. Demonstrates a wide and thorough understanding of the subject/ set text. Recognises fully and explains the significance of material. Can reason, evaluate and discuss in a thoughtful, mature manner.
3	4	Good. Understands the significance of the question. Seeks to move clearly beyond a purely descriptive approach, demonstrating touches of maturity and a willingness to engage with and discuss the material.
2	2–3	Satisfactory. Response is descriptive but offers a little more than at Level One. The candidate attempts, though with limited success, to move beyond a purely descriptive approach, with some limited discussion of the material.
1	1	Basic. Limited understanding of the subject. The candidate's response is descriptive and immature, with no attempt to discuss or evaluate the material at all.
0	0	Irrelevant. No response submitted, or clearly lacks any understanding whatsoever of the subject matter.

A Standards Booklet for 2048/02 (available from CIE Publications Catalogue) demonstrates the levels of response marking approach and provides specimen answers at each of the levels for some of the specimen questions from Paper 2.

8. Additional information

8.1 Guided learning hours

O Level syllabuses are designed on the assumption that candidates have about 130 guided learning hours per subject over the duration of the course. ('Guided learning hours' include direct teaching and any other supervised or directed study time. They do not include private study by the candidate.)

However, this figure is for guidance only, and the number of hours required may vary according to local curricular practice and the candidates' prior experience of the subject.

8.2 Recommended prior learning

Candidates beginning this course are not expected to have studied Religious Studies (Bible Knowledge) previously.

8.3 Progression

O Level Certificates are general qualifications that enable candidates to progress either directly to employment, or to proceed to further qualifications.

Candidates who are awarded grades C to A* in O Level Religious Studies (Bible Knowledge) are well prepared to follow courses leading to AS and A Level Divinity, or the equivalent.

8.4 Component codes

Because of local variations, in some cases component codes will be different in instructions about making entries for examinations and timetables from those printed in this syllabus, but the component names will be unchanged to make identification straightforward.

8.5 Grading and reporting

Ordinary Level (O Level) results are shown by one of the grades A*, A, B, C, D or E indicating the standard achieved, Grade A* being the highest and Grade E the lowest. 'Ungraded' indicates that the candidate's performance fell short of the standard required for Grade E. 'Ungraded' will be reported on the statement of results but not on the certificate.

8. Additional information

Percentage uniform marks are also provided on each candidate's Statement of Results to supplement their grade for a syllabus. They are determined in this way:

- A candidate who obtains...
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade A* obtains a percentage uniform mark of 90%.
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade A obtains a percentage uniform mark of 80%.
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade B obtains a percentage uniform mark of 70%.
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade C obtains a percentage uniform mark of 60%.
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade D obtains a percentage uniform mark of 50%.
 - ... the minimum mark necessary for a Grade E obtains a percentage uniform mark of 40%.
 - ... no marks receives a percentage uniform mark of 0%.

Candidates whose mark is none of the above receive a percentage mark in between those stated according to the position of their mark in relation to the grade 'thresholds' (i.e. the minimum mark for obtaining a grade). For example, a candidate whose mark is halfway between the minimum for a Grade C and the minimum for a Grade D (and whose grade is therefore D) receives a percentage uniform mark of 55%.

The uniform percentage mark is stated at syllabus level only. It is not the same as the 'raw' mark obtained by the candidate, since it depends on the position of the grade thresholds (which may vary from one session to another and from one subject to another) and it has been turned into a percentage.

8.6 Resources

Copies of syllabuses, the most recent question papers and Principal Examiners' reports are available on the Syllabus and Support Materials CD-ROM, which is sent to all CIE Centres.

Resources are also listed on CIE's public website at www.cie.org.uk. Please visit this site on a regular basis as the Resource lists are updated through the year.

Access to teachers' email discussion groups, suggested schemes of work and regularly updated resource lists may be found on the CIE Teacher Support website at <http://teachers.cie.org.uk>. This website is available to teachers at registered CIE Centres.
