MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2013 series

9787 CLASSICAL GREEK

9787/04

Paper 4 (Prose Composition or Comprehension), maximum raw mark 40

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2013 series for most IGCSE, Pre-U, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

The Plataeans sent a messenger to the Thebans outside the walls // to ask them not to harm
1 1 1 2 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
Plataean property// if they valued the lives of their own men who were at that time prisoners inside
1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 2 1
the city.// According to what the Thebans said later, the Plataeans promised to hand back the 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
prisoners when the enemy left Plataean territory.// But afterwards the Plataeans denied this, 1 1 2 1 2 1 1 1 2 1 1 1
claiming that they had promised merely to return them if a truce was agreed.// So it is not clear 2 1 1 1 1 2 1
which of the two sides was telling the truth.// Certainly, as soon as the Plataeans had carried all 1 1 1 2 1 1 1 2
their property into the city, they executed the prisoners.// It seems therefore that they did act in 2 1 1 1 1 1 2 1 1 1 1
bad faith, perhaps because of the bitter hatred that had existed between the two states for some time.
