Question 3

Read the excerpt below (from a published playscript) and refer to the stimulus materials. You are not required to have prior knowledge of the script or stimulus materials.

Script

Mary: Did I faint?

An: You had a long sleep.

Mary: It's so dark! Where's the sun?

An: I'm afraid the sun was hopelessly drunk and was carried away by the storm.

Mary: What time is it?

An: The castle has no time. Only an old, crazy mother who sits every night next to the bones of her children.

Mary: Did the war happen right here?

An: Yes, right here. Such a long time since we had a violent storm like this. A sandstorm in a time of peace.

Mary: Why is the Crone* making those sounds?

An: Saying prayers.

Mary: Does she pray all night?

An: No, she sleeps and the prayers are her lullaby.

Mary: Who does she pray for?

An: For the dead as well as for the living.

Mary: When will she wake up?

An: You'll know, she will be singing or crying.

Mary: I'm very thirsty, could I have a drink?

An: I gave you the last drop. Just wait till the storm calms down, I'll fetch you some water.

Mary: Doesn't the Crone* have any?

An: Perhaps she drinks her own tears.

Mary: Such a storm and no rain.

An: Here it rains only sand.

*Crone: an old wise woman

Stimulus materials

1. A picture of a crone's face

2. A picture of a snowflake

- a. Create your own context for this piece of script.

Discuss

- where and when this scene might take place
- what interrelationships might exist between the characters
- how the script and one or both of the stimulus materials informed your choice of context.

6 + 6 + 6 = 18 marks

- b. Using the scripted scene, one of the stimulus materials supplied and your own context from part a., describe how you would interpret this scene using one area of stagecraft.
